General registration terms

- The undersigned declare that all questions have been answered completely and truthfully.
- The signing of this form does not entitle anyone to be assigned a property.
- The applicant is aware (according to the explicit consent form) that the data provided on this form will be included in a personal register as referred to in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The provided information will be treated with strict confidentiality.
- This form is entirely non-binding; both the registered individual(s) and the landlord are not obligated to rent or lease.
- If the landlord and tenant agree to rent and lease, the tenant acknowledges that he/she must have deposited two months' "basic rent" as a security deposit into the landlord's designated bank account before the official key handover. If this security deposit is not present on the landlord's designated bank account before the key handover, the official key handover will not take place.

Only fully completed and signed registration forms will be processed. By signing this form, you agree to the above general registration terms.
