A black and white architectural floor plan of a house. The plan shows a central hallway (overloop) connecting three bedrooms (slaapkamer) and a bathroom (badkamer). The bedrooms are located on the left, center, and right sides of the plan. The bathroom is situated between the center and right bedrooms. The hallway runs horizontally through the middle of the house. There are several doors and windows indicated by lines and small symbols. The overall layout is rectangular with a central corridor.
